- (1) Daily rated employees and other similar staff paid from contingencies are not classified.
- (2) If any doubt arises as to the proper classification of any employee, the matter shall be referred to the Executive Council and the decision of the Executive council in this regard shall be final. It shall also be open to the Executive Council to introduce any new category of employees, as and when found necessary.

PART-II
DEFINITIONS

89. The terms used in these Ordinances lend the same meaning as in the Act and the Statutes. Subject to above, unless there be anything repugnant in the subject or context, the following terms are used in the Ordinances in the sense here, explained;

- (1) 'Cadre' means the sanctioned strength of a service or a Part of a service sanctioned as a separate Unit.
- (2) 'Compensatory allowance' means an allowance granted to meet personal expenditure necessitated by the circumstances in which duty is performed. It includes travelling allowance and dearness allowance. It is not intended to be a source of profit.
- (3) 'Duty' includes:
 - (a) service as a probationer provided such service is followed by confirmation;
 - (b) attendance in Law Courts as Juror or Assessor; or witness in a criminal or civil case in which the University is a party;
 - (c) duty in the Territorial Army.

Note:

- (i) Leave, -other than casual and quarantine leaves, is not duty.
- (ii) An employee may, with the previous sanction of the Executive Council be considered to be on duty while delivering lectures, conducting examinations or inspecting academic institutions of any recognised University or Government or Statutory Board or attending meetings of any Committee and annual session of any academic conference duly recognised by the University, provided that the total period of such absence does not exceed 30 days in any one academic year. Such duty shall not be combined with any kind of leave.
- (iii) Absence on leave of any employee for participation in any All India or regional sports or Games shall be treated as absence on duty and such leave shall not be debited to leave account provided that prior permission of the Executive Council is obtained for participation in such activities and the Executive Council recognise the bodies sponsoring such activities.
- (4) 'Holiday' means -
 - (a) a holiday declared as such by the Executive Council and includes a Sunday.
 - (b) In relation to any particular office or branch, a day on which such office or branch is ordered by competent authority to be closed for the transaction of the University business without reserve or qualification.

- (5) 'Lien' means the title of an employee to hold a post substantively, either immediately or on the termination of a period or periods of authorised absence from the post.
- (6) 'Medical certificate' means the certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner. The Executive Council may, however, ask an employee to obtain certificate of fitness from a Medical Officer attached to University Clinics/Hospitals.
- (7) 'Month' means a calendar month unless otherwise specified or made clear by the context. In calculating a period expressed in months and days, complete calendar months, irrespective of the number of the days in each, should first be calculated and the odd number of days calculated subsequently
- Note: In calculating a period of 3 months and 20 days from 25th January three months should be taken as ending on 24th April and twenty days on 14th- May. In the same way, the period from 30th January to 2nd March is 1 month and 2 days because one month from 30th January ends on the last day of February.
- 8) 'Officiate'-A person officiates in a post when he temporarily performs the duties of that post, which is either vacant or on which another person has a lien.
- (9) 'Pay' includes an employee's monthly pay, special pay and personal pay and other emoluments declared as pay;
- (10) 'Permanent Post' means a post sanctioned without limit of time and declared as such.
- (11) 'Personal Pay' means additional pay granted to an employee
- (a) to save him from loss of substantive pay,
 - or
 - (b) other personal consideration.
- (12) 'Probationer' means a person appointed on probation against a substantive vacancy.
- (13) 'Special pay' is an addition, of the nature of pay to the emoluments of a post or a person in consideration of
- (a) the specially arduous nature of the duties,
 - or
 - (b) a specific addition to the work or responsibility.
- (14) 'Subsistence Grant' means a monthly grant made to an employee who is not in receipt of pay or leave salary.
- (15) 'Substantive pay' means the pay which an employee is entitled to on account of a permanent post to which he has been appointed substantively.
- (16) 'Temporary post' means a post declared as such and sanctioned for a limited period.

PART-III

APPOINTMENT, PROMOTION AND GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

90. No one who has not passed the H. S. or P. U. Examination or its equivalent examination will be eligible for appointment to posts of Assistants. No one who has not passed a degree examination or its equivalent should be appointed an Office Superintendent or directly to any post ranking between the posts of Office Superintendent and Junior Assistant. Provided that these Provisions may be relaxed in the case of promotion from the post of the Lower subordinate staff to the post of the assistant or from a lower cadre of posts to a higher cadre as classified in ordinance 88.

The Establishment Committee shall prescribe the qualifications necessary for appointment to other posts in the University subject to the provisions of the Statutes Ordinances.

91. (1) Whenever a permanent vacancy occurs in the cadre of Lower Subordinate Staff the appointing authority shall issue notifications in the University Notice Boards requiring the candidates to register their names in the manner to be prescribed, for being considered for appointment to any such Post. Appointment shall be made on the basis of a Test and/ or an interview by the appointing authority.

(ii) Whenever a permanent vacancy occurs in the cadre of Assistants the appointing authority shall likewise issue notifications in the University Notice Board and/or in the Press requiring the candidates to register their names in the manner to be prescribed. Employment Exchange, Midnapore may also be requested to recommend candidates with necessary qualifications; if so required by Govt. order or by the 'Executive Council'. Appointments shall ordinarily be made on the basis of a written examination and an interview.

(iii) Appointments to vacancies in the cadre of Senior Assistants may be filled up by promotion from amongst the Assistants in, accordance with the principles laid down hereinafter, provided that the appointing authority shall fill up at least 25% of the vacancies in the senior cadre through an open competitive examination, which will be open to graduates only. Persons working in a lower post or in any other capacity will not be debarred from registering their names for appointment directly to a post in the cadre of senior Assistants, provided they possess the necessary qualifications.

(iv) Nothing in clauses (i) and (ii) above shall however affect temporary appointment to posts.

92. Except in the case of contract appointments, no person may be substantively appointed to the University service without a medical certificate of physical fitness which must be affixed to the employee's first pay bill. The Executive Council may make subsidiary rules in this connection.

93. (i) Promotion to the cadre of Senior Assistants will ordinarily be made on consideration of seniority, efficiency, attendance and on performance report of the Head of the Department concerned.

(ii) In case of the members of the lower Sub-ordinate Staff promotion to the higher cadre will ordinarily be made on consideration of seniority, performance and attendance provided he is recommended by the Head of the Department concerned.

Note - Any adverse remark or an 'E' marking is to be communicated by the Head of the Department to the employee concerned. The employee concerned shall be required to sign and return to the Head of the Department intimation of such adverse remark or 'E' marking and the employee may if he so desire send his own observations.

94. The whole time of an employee is at the disposal of the University and he may be employed in such hours by the Head of the Department on any day including Sundays and holidays subject to the provisions of Ordinances 98 and 145.

95. An employee on substantive appointment to a permanent post acquires a lien on that post.

96. All employees must join the appropriate Provident Fund instituted by the University for the benefit of its employees and shall be governed by the Rules of the Fund. No eligible person may opt out of the Fund.

97. Unless the Executive Council, in view of the special circumstances of a case, otherwise determine, after two years of continuous absence from duty without sanctioned leave, a person shall cease to be in the employ of the University.

RULES RE: OVERTIME AND HOLIDAY WORK

98. Every employee of the University should try to finish his allotted duty within office hours and no one shall be allowed to work beyond office hours or during holidays except under special circumstances when the Head of the Department concerned thinks that accumulation of work is such that it cannot be managed within the working hours of the office.

99. Whenever there is necessity for doing overtime or holiday work, the Head of the Office/Department concerned shall assess the number of persons required for working extra, hours and also the number of hours for which such persons should be asked to work beyond office hours or to attend office during holidays. He will then make a requisition to the Vice-Chancellor through the Finance Officer explaining the circumstances why the overtime/holiday work could not be avoided and obtain his prior approval before undertaking such holiday or overtime work. No employee shall ordinarily be allowed to work beyond office hours for more than two hours a day and 120 hours in a year, provided that no person drawing a basic salary exceeding Rs, 500 per month shall be entitled to any holiday or overtime allowance for working beyond office hours or attending office during holidays.

RULES RE :

TRANSFER OF STAFF FROM ONE DEPARTMENT TO ANOTHER

Provided the total amount of recoveries to be made under clauses (i) to (iv) above shall not exceed one-third of the subsistence grant.

163. (i) When the suspension of an employee is held to have been unjustifiable or not wholly justifiable; or when an employee who had been dismissed or removed or suspended from service is reinstated, the punishing or appellate authority shall grant to him for the period of his absence from duty.

- (a) If he is honourably acquitted the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled if he had not been dismissed, removed or suspended;
 - (b) If otherwise such proportion of pay and allowance as the punishing or appellate authority may prescribe.
- (2) In a case falling under clause (a) of Paragraph (1) the entire period of absence from duty shall be treated as it period spent on duty. In case falling under clause (b) of paragraph (1) the period may be treated as duty or leave unless the punishing or appellate authority directs otherwise.

Note: The amount of subsistence grant, if any, already drawn shall be deducted from the pay and allowances or proportion thereof which may be granted under this ordinance.

164. Leave may not be granted to an employee under suspension or committed to prison.
