- 02.(d) To consider the letter dated 31.03.2014 submitted by Shri Nayan Ranjan Mahapatra, Senior Assistant in connection with granting of additional pay and counting of experience in a higher post as per rule.

Resolution: The Executive Council of Vidyasagar University noted the letter dated 31.03.2014 submitted by Shri Nayan Ranjan Mahapatra, Senior Assistant stating that he has been discharging his duties in the post of Senior Office Superintendent in addition to his own duties as Senior Assistant since November, 2013. It has been categorically stated in the Vidyasagar University First Ordinances, 1985 that an employee discharging additional duties of a post higher than that of his substantive appointment is entitled to draw as additional pay one-fifth of the minimum of the scale of pay of the higher post. In this connection he has requested to consider his prayer in a humane way as per the provisions available in the Ordinances. The Executive Council also noted that he has also requested to recognize the period of service rendered by him in the higher post of Senior Office Superintendent since November, 2013 as part of his additional duty.

- 02.(e) To note the letter dated 23.05.2014 submitted jointly by the Co-ordinator and Head of Mass Communication & Videography in connection with enhancement of course fee of Mass Communication & Videography Course of this University.

Resolution: The Executive Council noted the letter dated 23.05.2014 submitted jointly by the Co-ordinator and Head of Mass Communication & Videography stating that the department of Mass Communication & Videography is performing well for last two sessions. In the current session, admission of the students has met the full intake capacity. The said course is currently incurring Vidyasagar University's financial loss. The tuition fee of the course has never been revised since the inception of the course in 2006-2007. Last year on the basis of their application the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor suggested to form a committee for revision of fees. In this connection they have requested to take necessary steps in this regard so that the course fee of the said course is revised.

After thorough discussion on the letter submitted jointly by the Co-ordinator and Head of Mass Communication & Videography in connection with enhancement of course fee of Mass Communication & Videography Course of this University it was resolved that the admission process for Mass Communication & Videography course be conducted by the Kalyani Foundation for Media Science and Community Research directly and it should not be included in the admission process of other postgraduate courses of this University. Resolved also that Mass Communication and Videography course is run by a private foundation, Kalyani Foundation for Media Science and Community Research and it is not a regular Department of Vidyasagar University. Resolved further that Kalyani Foundation for Media Science and Community Research be permitted to take admission for such course for this year only with the existing fees-structure. Resolved again that from the next year admission to Mass Communication and Videography course inside the Vidyasagar University campus will be kept in abeyance.
