(a) The Establishment Committee noted the recommendation of the Committee constituted by the Establishment Committee in its meeting dated 07.01.2013 based on the application submitted by Shri Ashim Kumar Panchali, Senior Typist pertaining to his promotion to the post of Junior Superintendent and Senior Superintendent respectively. The Establishment Committee also noted the vacant posts and the promotional ratio as per the norms of the University.

After thorough discussion on the recommendation submitted by the Committee and deliberation on the matter regarding the promotion of Shri Ashim Kumar Panchali it was resolved that the prayer of Sri Panchali regarding promotion to the post of Junior Superintendent with effect from 24.02.2005 cannot be considered as there were 07 non-teaching employees in the post of Junior Superintendent on that period according to the record available in the University. Resolved also that as per the present scenario the following non-teaching employees of this University be entitled to get their promotion to the post of Junior Superintendent with effect from the date to be decided by the Establishment Committee after thorough checking of the records & relevant G.O. in this regard subject to the submission of application afresh and final evaluation of their past performances in their respective posts for promotion to the said post.

- (a) Shri Ashim Kumar Panchali, Senior Typist.
- (b) Smt. Hiranmoyee Bhattacharya, Senior Assistant.
- (c) Shri Ajit Kumar Mardanya, Senior Typist.
- (d) Smt. Latika Sahu, Senior Assistant.

(b) Resolved further that for all such promotional cases including the Career Advancement Scheme of the Non-teaching employees of this University, Open Performance Report (OPR) be mandatory. The Registrar be requested to prepare/design the proforma of the Open Performance Report at this University in compliance with the O.P.R. of the West Bengal Government and the said format be placed before the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor for his kind approval.

(c) The Establishment Committee noted that for recruitment of some posts of the non-teaching employees, the University receives a lot of applications for a particular post(s) which is difficult to conduct the interview for the said post on a date.

After thorough discussion on the matter regarding preparation of the shortlisting candidates it was resolved that an elimination round of interview be conducted by two members of the Establishment Committee for preparation of the shortlisting candidates for the final round interview in a particular post where the number of application is too high. Resolved also that regarding nomination of two members of the Establishment Committee in the elimination round of interview, the matter be left to the Vice-Chancellor for necessary action. Resolved further that after completion of the elimination round, final interview of the shortlisted candidates be made as per the University rule(through Establishment Committee). Resolved again that there should be a reasonable gap between conducting of the elimination round and the final round of interview to be decided by the University authority.
