CHAPTER-V MISCELLANEOUS

20. Continuance of certain provisions of Regulations, etc. applicable to the former University

(1) Save as otherwise specifically provided in the Statutes, the Ordinances or these Regulations, the provisions relating to the conduct of University examinations, the passing of Examinations for the conferment and award of degrees, diplomas and certificates, the courses of study and the division of subjects and the conditions for carrying on research and for admission to different courses of study and examinations, including the manner of exemption from pursuing courses of study for admission to examinations, contained in any orders, rules or regulations, by whatever name called, applicable in respect of the University established under the Calcutta University Act, 1979 (hereinafter referred to as the former University) and in force immediately before the appointed day shall in so far as such provisions are not repugnant to the provisions of the Act, the Statutes, the Ordinances or these Regulations, apply in respect of this University and be deemed to be provisions of these Regulations as if herein made and shall continue in force as such until altered, amended or repealed.

(2) Except in so far as the relevant Faculty Council for Post-graduate Studies or Council for Under-graduate Studies may otherwise direct, examinations which were regarded by the former University immediately before the appointed day as equivalent to various examinations of that University shall, after the appointed day, be deemed to be equivalent to the corresponding examinations of the University. The relevant Faculty Council for Post-graduate Studies or Council for Under-graduate Studies may also from time to time recognize other examinations to be equivalent to examinations of the University.

21. Notwithstanding anything contained anywhere else in the Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations, a candidate for any public examination leading to a degree, diploma or certificate of this University may apply to the Controller of Examinations for reexamination of his/her answer-scripts within one month of the date of the receipt of the marksheet in the prescribed form together with a fee of Rs. 15/- per paper subject to the following conditions:

(i) An unsuccessful candidate will be allowed to apply for re-examination in not more than two papers of an examination provided he/she secured at least 45% marks on an average in the other papers of the examination; provided further that an honours candidate will be allowed to apply for re-examination in not more than two papers in the honours subject as also in not more than two papers in the pass subjects in which he/she has failed if he/she secured at least 45% marks on an average in other pass papers of the examination and 50% marks on an average in other honours papers of the examination, as the case may be.

A successful candidate will also have the option of getting his/her answer-scripts re-examined in not more than two papers, provided he/she has secured 50% or more marks in the aggregate, excluding the paper or papers in which re-examination is desired.

In case of Honours students the percentage shall be completed in Honours papers only, if they seek re-examination of Honours papers.

Applications for re-examination shall be restricted to the theoretical papers only of the regular annual examination (and not of any compartmental, supplementary or special examinations) and no application for re-examination in any practical or oral examination or internal assessment shall be entertained.

22. The Board of Examiners for such re-examinations will be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor in consultation with the Head of the Post-graduate department of the subject concerned and will have the full authority to revise the marks, if considered necessary, (the original examiner/examiners shall not be included in the Board of Examiners). The Board of Examiners shall submit the marks to the Controller of Examinations for declaration of the results accordingly with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

23. Power for general addition of marks etc at examinations:

(1) The Faculty Council for Post-graduate or Council for Under-graduate Studies concerned shall have power generally to add to the marks obtained by candidates in a subject or paper at any examination in exceptional circumstances to be specifically recorded, and on the recommendations of the examination Board, where there is one, or the body of examiners where there is no Examination board, and not otherwise.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), if the Faculty Council for Post-Graduate or Council for Under-Graduate Studies concerned is in any case satisfied that injustice has been done or is likely to be done to candidates at any examination in view of the fact that the question paper set in a subject is stiff or lengthy or comprises questions beyond the scope of the prescribed syllabus or contains errors, printing or otherwise, the Council may issue such directions as it may consider necessary

24. Prohibition for appearing at two or more examinations in any academic year.

No. candidate shall ordinarily be entitled to appear at two more examinations in the same academic year. If any candidate, on submitting fees and forms for two or more examinations to be held in any academic year, obtains admit cards in respect thereof but eventually cannot appear at any of such examinations on the ground that such examinations are held on the same day, the University shall not be in any way responsible for such inability on the part of the candidate:

Provided that in such case the candidate may apply in writing to the Controller of Examinations for cancellation of his examination at which he so fails to appear and claim a refund of the fees paid in respect thereof with such deductions as the Council may determine.

Explanation : In this Regulation-
“ examination” does not include any examination for admission to which a Bachelor’s degree is a necessary qualification.

25. Emergency meetings of certain authorities of the University.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Chapter II, in case of emergency, meetings of Faculty Councils for post Graduate Studies or Councils for Under-Graduate Studies and Boards of Studies attached to such Councils may be convened by the Registrar under the direction of the Vice-Chancellor on such dates, at such times and places and with such notice as the Vice-Chancellor may think fit.

26. Interpretation.

In the case of any doubt or difficulty as to the interpretation of these Regulations, the matter shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor and his decision thereon shall, subject to the provisions of the Act, be final.
